FREE PREVIEW OF LAST LETTERS HOME: VOICES OF AMERICAN TROOPS FROM THE BATTLEFIELDS OF IRAQ

Bakersfield, CA- This Veterans Day, HBO and Bright House Networks present Last Letters Home: Voices of American Troops from the Battlefields of Iraq. In an effort to reach as many viewers as possible, Bright House Networks will open the HBO signal during the November 11th telecast of Last Letters Home: Voices of American Troops from the Battlefields of Iraq, a poignant tribute to American's fallen men and women who have sacrificed their lives in the ward in Iraq. The telecast will be available to all Bright House Networks customers, not just HBO subscribers.

Last Letters Home: Voices of American Troops from the Battlefields of Iraq features ten families that share one common thread: the loss of a loved one in Iraq. The families come from states across the country, including California, Colorado, Florida, New Jersey, New York, Michigan, Missouri, Wisconsin, Vermont and Virginia. The letters, like the film, are not pro-war or anti-war, but pro-family, with the authors delivering unequivocal expressions of love and gratitude. They also provide a unique look inside the war in Iraq. Each letter is priceless to the families left behind.

Bright House Networks will provide the FREE preview of Last Letters Home: Voices of American Troops from the Battlefields of Iraq on Veterans Day, Thursday, Nov. 11, 2004. The program will air on channel 21 in Bakersfield and channel 18 in Tehachapi at 9:00 pm. Regular programming will return to channel 21 and 18 at 10:00 pm when the film ends.
